

Daily Racing Form

VOL. IV. NO. 282. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27-28, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

WHAT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS DID.

Below DAILY RACING FORM presents the performances to date of the 2-year-olds of 1898 that promise well for the future. Other youngsters than these here named have won races, but, on the whole, it may be quite safely assumed that in this list is comprised the names of the winners of the great 3-year-old stakes of next year. One point observable in this table, as in all similar annual tables, is that the horses, no matter how good, that win more races than they lose, are decidedly scarce.

The heroine of the early spring racing, May Hempstead, is the only unbeaten one. It is more than probable that she was a really high class filly, but the accident that retired her before she had met any of the real stars of her age prevents any reliable estimate of her capacity. Espionage holds the pride of place in respect to having won the greatest number of races and will almost certainly add to her score before the year ends. But the 2-year-olds that show best in the way of percentage of races won, are Ventoro, Onomastus, Heliobas, Jean Beraud, Spirituelle, Satin Slipper, Rush, Alpen, Frank Bell, and Black Venus. Most of them, it must be admitted, are pretty good ones. Under Virginia Bradley's heroic methods Boney Boy shows the surprising aggregate of 56 starts and he is still gallantly in the ring. Nick Hall's useful filly Canace has the ill-luck record of seventeen seconds, most of which were decided against her by heads, noses and eye lashes.

Good Sport at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 26.—The racing today was excellent and the 3,000 people present had a good day's sport. Frost outrode Burns when it came to a finish in the race of the day—the fourth. He used good judgment with David and allowed Macy to race his head off. Speculation was lively. Nine books drew in.

ORMONDES AND ST. CARLOS.

Of the recent sale at San Francisco in which the first of the progeny of Ormonde ever offered at auction in this country, were sold, the Breeder and Sportsman says:

"Three St. Carlo yearling fillies owned by Mr. Macdonough and two yearling colts by the same sire and owned by Dr. Posey and P. W. Selby, Esq., respectively, were sold first. They averaged $350. A filly by Morello brought but $150. Then the first of the Ormonde fillies was brought into the ring and there was a craning of necks. She was a grand looker and no mistake, and was started at $500. There were a half dozen bidders at first, but it finally settled down to a contest between W. B. Sink, Jr., and Ed Lannigan. Mr. Sink finished stronger than his opponent and his bid of $2,300 secured the handsome filly amid applause.

"The average for the five Ormondes sold was $1,070. The grand total of the sale was $7,250 and the average for all was $660."

The following were the prices obtained for each:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

On account of extremely cold weather the Saturday racing programs at Washington and Lexington were declared off. The weather clerk having promised warmer weather for Monday, good entry lists appear today for both tracks.

The stakes of the Coney Island Jockey Club, which closed November 15, filled as follows: Foam, to be run in 1899, 118 entries; Surf, to be run in 1899, 112; Tidal, to be run in 1900, 117. Fifty nominators made entry, including all the big stables in the country. The next closing of Sheepshead Bay stakes will be early in January and will include the rich Futurity.
